

Supporting you to be heard

QADA can stand alongside you to support and speak out on your behalf in a way that represents your best interests.

QADA services are:

- Free
- Directed by clients
- Confidential
- Independent and
- Available throughout Queensland.

Queensland Aged & Disability
advocacy Inc.

An advocate provides support by working with you, solely on your behalf and at your direction.

QADA provides services to:

- ❑ Recipients of Australian Government Aged Care services eg. Residential Care, CACP and EACH packages
- ❑ Recipients of Home and Community Care (HACC) services
- ❑ Carers of clients of the above services; and
- ❑ Adults whose decision-making capacity is being questioned, with guardianship and administration matters.

How can QADA help you?

- ❑ Stand alongside you when you need support
- ❑ Support you to work through an issue
- ❑ Look at all possible options
- ❑ Let you know about available services
- ❑ Be at assessments
- ❑ Provide accurate information
- ❑ Ensure you are aware of your rights and responsibilities.

freecall: 1800 818 338 ❑ info@qada.org.au ❑ www.qada.org.au

QADA is supported by

National Aged Care Advocacy Program
– An Australian Government Initiative

